Item 1. Security and Issuer

The class of equity security to which this statement on form Schedule 13D relates is the Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share ("Securities"), of TREDEGAR, INDUSTRIES, (the "Issuer"), a Virginia corporation, with principal offices located at 1100 Boulders Parkway, Richmond, Virginia 23225.

Item 2. Identity and Background

This statement is being filed by Mario J. Gabelli ("Mr. Gabelli") and various entities which he directly or indirectly controls and for which he acts as chief investment officer. These entities, except for Lynch Corporation ("Lynch"), Safety Railway Service Corporation ("Safety Railway"), Western New Mexico Telephone Company ("Western New Mexico") and Inter-Community Telephone Company ("Inter-Community") engage in various aspects of the securities business, primarily as investment advisor to various institutional and individual clients, including registered investment companies and pension plans, as broker/dealer and as managing general partner of various private investment partnerships. Certain of these entities may also make investments for their own account.

The foregoing persons in the aggregate often own beneficially more than 5% of a class of equity securities of a particular Issuer. Although several of the foregoing persons are treated as institutional investors for purposes of reporting their beneficial ownership on the short-form Schedule 13G, the holdings of those who do not qualify as institutional investors may exceed the 1% threshold presented for filing on Schedule 13D or implementation of their investment philosophy may from time to time require action which could be viewed as not completely passive. In order to avoid any question as to whether their beneficial ownership is being reported on the proper form and in order to provide greater investment flexibility and administrative uniformity, these persons have decided to file their beneficial ownership reports on the more detailed Schedule 13D form rather than on the short-form Schedule 13G and thereby to provide more expansive disclosure than may be necessary.

(a), (b) and (c) - This statement is being filed by one or more of the following persons: Gabelli Funds, Inc. ("GFI"), GAMCO Investors, Inc. ("GAMCO"), Gabelli Securities, Inc. ("GSI"), Gabelli & Company, Inc. ("Gabelli & Company"), Gabelli Performance Partnership ("GPP"), GLI, Inc. ("GLI"), The Gabelli Associates Fund ("Gabelli Associates"), Gabelli Associates Limited ("GAL"), The Gabelli & Company, Inc. Profit Sharing Plan (the "Plan"); Gabelli International Limited ("GIL"), Gabelli International II Limited ("GIL II"), Mario J. (d) and (e) On August 17, 1988, the parties named in the following administrative order consented to its entry by the Securities and Exchange Commission, prior to the adjudication of any issue of fact or law and without admitting or denying any of the allegations: In the Matter of The Gabelli Group, Inc., Gabelli-Rosenthal & Partners, L.P, G&R Partners, Gabelli Funds, Inc., GAMCO Investors, Inc. and Mario J. Gabelli, Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Release No. 26005, Investment Act of 1940 Release No. 16527. In substance, in its order, the Commission made findings that the entities and Mr. Gabelli violated Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 13D-1 thereunder ("Section 13(d)") by failing to make a timely filing of a Schedule 13D (rather than a Schedule 13G on which certain of the entities reported their holdings) disclosing that the respondents formed a group to acquire or influence the control of DiGiorgio Corporation ("DiGiorgio") and that the entities (and not Mr. Gabelli) violated Section 17(d) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and Rule 17d-1 thereunder ("Section 17(d)") by seeking a leveraged buy-out transaction with DiGiorgio in which certain affiliated investment companies had an investment. The order requires the entities and Mr. Gabelli to comply with Section 13(d) and the entities to comply with Section 17(d) and requires the respondents to retain independent counsel to review their practices and procedures for compliance with Sections 13(d) and 17(d), to submit the counsel's report to the board of directors of the respondent entities and to the investment companies they advise and to provide the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission with such counsel's report and any action taken in response thereto.

The independent counsel's report and suggested procedures were presented to the Board of Directors of the respondent entities and to the investment companies they advise. The Boards and management of all the entities adopted the recommended procedures in November of 1988. In addition the report and the action taken by the entities and their Boards were provided to the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 15, 1988.

(f) - Reference is made to Schedule I hereto.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

All Reporting Persons used an aggregate of approximately $5,225,085 to purchase its Securities. GAMCO and GFI used approximately $4,953,442 and $271,643, respectively, of funds that were provided through the accounts of certain of their investment advisory clients (and, in the case of some of such accounts at GAMCO, may be through borrowings from client margin accounts) in order to purchase the Securities for such clients.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Each of the Reporting Persons, with the exceptions of Lynch and Safety Railway, has purchased and holds the Securities reported by it for investment for one or more accounts over which it has shared, sole, or both investment and/or voting power, for its own account, or both.

The Reporting Persons, with the exceptions of Lynch and Safety Railway, are engaged in the business of securities analysis and investment and pursue an investment philosophy of identifying undervalued situations. In pursuing this investment philosophy, the Reporting Persons analyze the operations, capital structure and markets of companies in which they invest, including the Issuer, on a continuous basis through analysis of documentation and discussions with knowledgeable industry and market observers and with representatives of such companies (often at the invitation of management). The Reporting Persons do not believe they possess material inside information concerning the Issuer. As a result of these analytical activities one or more of the Reporting Persons may issue analysts reports, participate in interviews or hold discussions with third parties or with management in which the Reporting Person may suggest or take a position with respect to potential changes in the operations, management or capital structure of such companies as a means of enhancing shareholder values. Such suggestions or positions may relate to one or more of the transactions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of the Schedule 13D form, including, without limitation, such matters as disposing of one or more businesses, selling the company or acquiring another company or business, changing operating or marketing strategies, adopting or not adopting, certain types of anti-takeover measures and restructuring the company's capitalization or dividend policy.

Each of the Reporting Persons intends to adhere to the foregoing investment philosophy with respect to the Issuer. However, none of the Reporting Persons intends to seek control of the Issuer or participate in the management of the Issuer, and any Reporting Person that is registered as an investment company under the 1940 Act will participate in such a transaction only following receipt of an exemption from the SEC under Rule 17D-1 under the 1940 Act, if required, and in accordance with other applicable law.

In pursuing this investment philosophy, each Reporting Person will continuously assess the Issuer's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, general economic conditions, the securities markets in general and those for the Issuer's securities in particular, other developments and other investment opportunities, as well as the investment objectives and diversification requirements of its shareholders or clients and its fiduciary duties to such shareholders or clients. Depending on such assessments, one or more of the Reporting Persons may acquire additional Securities or may determine to sell or otherwise dispose of all or some of its holdings of Securities. Although the Reporting Persons share the same basic investment philosophy and although portfolio decisions are made by or under the supervision of Mr. Gabelli, the investment objectives and diversification requirements of various clients differ from those of other clients so that one or more Reporting Persons may be acquiring Securities while others are disposing of Securities.

With respect to voting of the Securities, the Reporting Persons have adopted general voting policies relating to voting on specified issues affecting corporate governance and shareholder values. Under these policies, the Reporting Persons generally vote all securities over which they have voting power in favor of cumulative voting, financially reasonable golden parachutes, one share one vote, management cash incentives and pre-emptive rights and against greenmail, poison pills, supermajority voting, blank check preferred stock and super-dilutive stock options. Exceptions may be made when management otherwise demonstrates superior sensitivity to the needs of shareholders. In the event that the aggregate voting position of all joint filers shall exceed 25% of the total voting position of the issuer then the proxy voting committees of The Gabelli Equity Trust, The Gabelli Value Fund, and The Gabelli Asset Fund shall vote their funds shares independently.

Each of the Covered Persons who is not a Reporting Person has purchased the Securities reported herein as beneficially owned by him for investment for his own account or that of one or more members of his immediate family. Each such person may acquire additional Securities or dispose of some or all of the Securities reported herein with respect to him.

Other than as described above, none of the Reporting Persons and none of the Covered Persons who is not a Reporting Person has any present plans or proposals which relate to or would result in any transaction, change or event specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of the Schedule 13D form.

Gabelli-Rosenthal & Partners, L.P. ("G-R"), a partnership for whose general partner GLI, Inc., which is an indirect subsidiary of GFI, acts as the monitor of existing portfolio investments and this is its primary business purpose.

Item 5. Interest In Securities Of The Issuer

(a) The aggregate number and percentage of Securities to which this Schedule 13D relates is 748,800 shares, representing 6.87% of the 10,894,233 shares outstanding in the Issuer's most recently filed Form 10-Q dated April 30, 1994. The Reporting Persons beneficially own those Securities as follows:

Name	Shares of Common Stock	% of Class of Common
GFI:
As Principal	0	0.00%
As Agent	247,000	2.27%
GAMCO
As Principal	0	0.00%
As Agent	501,800	4.61%
Mario J. Gabelli	0	0.00%

Mr. Gabelli is deemed to have beneficial ownership of the Securities beneficially owned by each of the foregoing persons and GFI is deemed to have beneficial ownership of the securities owned beneficially by each of the foregoing persons other than Mr. Gabelli.

(b) Each of the Reporting Persons and Covered Persons has the sole power to vote or direct the vote and sole power to dispose or to direct the disposition of the Securities reported for it, either for its own benefit or for the benefit of its investment clients or its partners, as the case may be, except that GAMCO Investors, Inc. does not have authority to vote 2,500 of the reported shares and except that GFI has sole dispositive and voting power with respect to the shares of the Issuer held by the The Gabelli Asset Fund, The Gabelli Equity Trust, Inc., The Gabelli Growth Fund, The Gabelli Convertible Securities Fund, The Gabelli Value Fund Inc., The Gabelli Small Cap Growth Fund, The Gabelli Equity Income Fund, The Gabelli ABC Fund, The Gabelli Global Telecommunications Fund, The Gabelli Global Convertible Securities Fund and/or The Gabelli Global Interactive Couch Potato Fund, so long as the aggregate voting interest of all joint filers does not exceed 25% of their total voting interest in the Issuer and in that event, the Proxy Voting Committee of each Fund (other than The Gabelli Growth Fund) shall respectively vote that Funds shares, and except that, at any time, the Proxy Voting Committee of each such Fund may take and exercise in its sole discretion the entire voting power with respect to the shares held by such Fund under special circumstances such as regulatory considerations, and except that the power of Mr. Gabelli and GFI is indirect with respect to Securities beneficially owned directly by other Reporting Persons.

(c) Information with respect to all transactions in the Securities which were effected during the past sixty days by each of the Reporting Persons and Covered Persons is set forth on Schedule II annexed hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

(d) The investment advisory and brokerage clients of GFI, GAMCO, Gabelli & Company, the partners of the various partnerships managed by GFI, Mr. Gabelli, and GSI (including GR&P, GPP, and Gabelli Associates, to the extent of their economic interest there-in) and the shareholders of GIL which Mr. Gabelli manages and GR&P which is managed by GSI have the sole right to receive and, subject to the notice, withdrawal and/or termination provisions of such advisors, brokerage and partnership arrangements, the sole power to direct the receipt of dividends from, and the proceeds of sale of, any of the Securities beneficially owned by such Reporting Persons. Except as noted, no such client or partner has an interest by virtue of such relationship that relates to more than 5% of the Securities. Neither Mr. Gabelli nor GFI nor any of such other Reporting Persons has an economic interest in any of the Securities reported herein except those reported as being directly beneficially owned by GFI, Mr. Gabelli, Gabelli & Company, GSI, GIL, GIL II, GAL, GPP, Lynch, Safety Railway and the Plan, and except those as to which GLI and Gabelli Associates have an interest through their general partner account in the partnerships managed by them.

(e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

The powers of disposition and voting of GFI, GAMCO, Gabelli & Company with respect to Securities owned beneficially by them on behalf of their investment advisory or brokerage clients, of GLI, Mr. Gabelli and GSI with respect to Securities owned beneficially by them on behalf of the partnerships which they directly or indirectly manage, and of GIL and GAL with respect to Securities owned beneficially by it on behalf of its shareholders, are held pursuant to written agreements with such clients and partnerships. The pertinent portions of forms of such agreements utilized by such Reporting Persons are filed as Exhibits hereto.
